Section B — Personal Statement

In 500-750 words, describe your path toward (or through) a career in a health profession. What draws you to this field? What barriers have you navigated, and what has this pursuit required of you? What would this scholarship mean at this point in your journey?

Type your personal statement into the online application form. It must be your own original work; see the certification in Section G.

☐ I will type my personal statement into the online form

Section C — Statement of Financial Need

In 150-250 words, briefly describe your current financial circumstances and how this award would support your continued pursuit of your health profession studies. Type this statement into the online application form. You must also email one of the following: a Pell Grant eligibility notice, a financial aid award letter, a current-year FAFSA Submission Summary (SAI), or a completed C.D. Breedlove Foundation Financial Need Statement (Form 2A).

Section D — Academic Documentation

Email the following as separate files to applications@cdbreedlovefoundation.org with the subject line "Documents: Your Full Name". The experience listed on your CV or resume is part of how your application is evaluated; relevant research, clinical, or volunteer work strengthens your application and is cross-checked against your personal statement and recommendation letters.

- ☐ Current CV or resume, including any research, clinical, or volunteer experience relevant to your health profession field.
- ☐ An unofficial transcript, or a brief summary of program progress for graduate, doctoral, or professional-track applicants.

Section E — Letters of Recommendation

Name at least two (2), and up to three (3), recommenders in the online application form. Each receives an automatic email asking them to send their letter directly to the Foundation, so please tell them to expect it. Choose recommenders from different parts of your life wherever possible. Letters are due two weeks after the application deadline.

- ☐ Letter 1 (required): an academic reference, advisor, or research supervisor.
- ☐ Letter 2 (required): a clinical, professional, or volunteer supervisor who has directly supervised your work.
- ☐ Letter 3 (optional): a personal mentor or other individual who knows you well.

Section F — Finalist Interview

If you are selected as a finalist, you will be asked to complete a brief live interview (video call, in-person, or panel format) as a required part of the review process; this step cannot be waived. The interview will include questions about your personal statement, your experience, and your goals.

Section G — Certification

I certify that the information provided in this application is true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I certify that my personal statement is my own original work, substantially written by me, and that I have not used an AI writing tool or another person to generate its substantive content without disclosing that use to the Foundation. I understand that a material misrepresentation in this application, including a personal statement I am unable to meaningfully discuss in interview, may result in disqualification or, if an award has already been made, its rescission.
